

WHEREAS, the American Library Association is celebrating our nation's libraries this year with the theme, "Libraries Transform," celebrating how libraries can transform lives and communities through the power of literacy and learning, and

WHEREAS, libraries play a vital role in helping people of all ages find the information they need in print and online and in supporting the quality of life in their communities, and

WHEREAS, Mansfield is fortunate to have dedicated librarians and library professionals encouraging usage and reminding us of the powerful and positive impact libraries have on the lives of our residents on a daily basis, and

WHEREAS, librarians have worked through the years to raise the visibility of the library in a positive context and communicate clearly their value by supporting funding for facilities and books, and

WHEREAS, the city, along with numerous volunteers, has fostered support and awareness of libraries by making this important community service available to its citizens for more than 80 years,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David L. Cook, Mayor of the City of Mansfield, Texas, join with members of the City Council to hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2016

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

in Mansfield and call upon the citizens to take advantage of the wonderful library resources available in our city and offer support to librarians, library workers and volunteers who dedicate themselves to this worthwhile endeavor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and cause the official seal of the City of Mansfield to be affixed this 11th day of April, 2016.
