Meeting Agenda

City Council

Tuesday, August 3, 2021

8:00 AM

This is an educational community tour of the Council regarding neo-traditional urbanism development principles and implementation strategies.

No discussion of specific Mansfield projects will be had and no decisions will be made.

The City Council is traveling to St. Charles, Missouri, and Prospect, Kentucky for the purpose of receiving educational briefings and viewing existing neo-traditional urbanism developments that are examples of new urban planning techniques. These tours will be educational to the Council and will provide information for the purpose of considering changes to the City's development regulations and zoning ordinance.
