WHATABURGER BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The Whataburger Invitational High School Tournament is in its 63rd year of existence. The tournament started in 1958 as a Ft. Worth West Lions Club fundraiser to provide their civic duty projects and to keep the youth involved and off the streets during the Christmas holiday period. The FW West Side Lions, as all Lions Clubs are, was a service oriented club with their main efforts and accepted monies working with and thru the Helen Keller Foundation. The FW West Side Lions Club spent thousands of their proceed dollars each year paying for eyeglass exams along with the physical eyeglasses for all concerted students in three school districts on the west side of Ft. Worth.

The basketball fundraiser was founded in 1958 and has not missed a year since it's inception, even though the FW West Side Lions Club disbanded in 1995. Championship Basketball, Inc. assumed the rights to the tournament at that time and still today assumes the liabilities along with the profits. The tournament proceeds continue to help the youth of the tournament thru each champion of the tournament three divisions of the tournament receiving a $1,000 scholarship payable to each school fund to send deserving students to further their education, AAU contributions, and many other philanthropic endeavors. The tournament keeps seed money for the next year for general expenditures.

The FW West Side Lions Club and now Whataburger Basketball Tournament is well known, not only in the State of Texas, but nationally known as ESPN a few years back acknowledge the tournament as one of the top 5 high school basketball tournaments in the nation. The tournament over the years have invited and they accepted to participate, high profile high school basketball programs to the metroplex to participate. A few of those are DeMatha, Los Angeles Crenshaw, Baltimore Dunbar, Washington DC Dunbar, Miami Senior, Louisville KY Ballard, oak Hill Academy, New Orleans Cohen, Cleveland St. Josephs, Cincinnati Woodward and many others.

Our basketball tournament has touched and been a part of over 30,000 youth not only from the metroplex, but the entire State of Texas, and the nation.

The Whataburger Tournament Honors Close Friend and Blue Boys Division Director Steve Grissom

Steve migrated to Ft. Worth from Southwest Missouri years ago to move closer to his parents. He was a lifetime educator, retiring from the public school system only a few years ago. Steve had been an integral part of the Whataburger Basketball Tournament for over 30 years. Starting as a ticket taker and jack of all trades at the 4A Division at Billingsley Fieldhouse, he continued supporting the tournament when we moved to Burleson High School, then to Haltom High School and then finally to Saginaw High School. During the tournaments expansions and moves, Steve ran the Boys Blue Division as the Division Director. Steve always had a smile on his face and was always willing to help wherever needed. He welcomed all the patrons, guests, media, participants, and coaches at our events with that infectious smile and always looked forward to tournament time. He loved basketball and being able to help young student athletes. Please join the Tournament Family as we honor and remember Steve Grissom.
