

WHEREAS, the 2016-2017 Timberview High School Lady Wolves Varsity basketball team captured the 2017 UIL 5A State Runner-Up crown by beating Corpus Christi Flour Bluff 66-41 in the state semi-finals and falling to Canyon in a tough fought contest in the state championship finals, and

WHEREAS, during the team's outstanding season they also won bi-district, area, regional quarter finals, regional semi-finals and the regional finals with an impressive winning record of 37 wins and 3 losses, and

WHEREAS, the team includes seniors Chennedy Carter (also selected to the McDonald's All-American Team and the UIL State Tournament Team), Taylah Thomas (also named to the UIL State Tournament Team), Trelynn Tyler and Jaryanna Ward; juniors London Scott and Lauryn Thompson; sophomores N'Denasija Collins, Mikayla Hutchinson, Destiny Jackson, Kennedy Wilson and Arianna Clark; and freshman Nina Milliner, and

WHEREAS, leading the team was head coach Kit Martin and her staff including assistant coaches Todd Monsey, Kelton Clayborn, Jeannette Mitchell, Stacy McDonald and Karen Lee; managers Kaela Adams and Ke'Aundrea Stigler; athletic trainers Kristin Campos and Trevor Smith; and student trainers Aniya Smith-Kennedy and Valerie Tang, and

WHEREAS, the Mansfield community is pleased to join in the celebration for this special season and wish continued success for the Lady Wolves team,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David L. Cook, Mayor of the City of Mansfield, Texas, join with the members of the City Council, to hereby proclaim April 24, 2017 as in Mansfield and ask citizens to celebrate the achievements of the players and coaches and express gratitude for the community spirit and pride generated by the team over the season.

TIMBERVIEW GIRLS BASKETBALL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Mansfield, State of Texas, to be affixed this 24th day of April, 2017.