

WHEREAS, the 2016-2017 Timberview High School Wolves Varsity boys basketball team captured the 2017 UIL 5A State Championship by beating Veterans Memorial 68-48 in the state semi-finals and besting Fort Bend Marshall 74-66 in the state championship finals, and

WHEREAS, during the team's outstanding season they also won bi-district, area, regional quarter finals, regional semi-finals and the regional finals with an impressive winning record of 32 wins and 7 losses, and

WHEREAS, the team includes seniors Tim Johnson (named to UIL State Tournament Team) and William Owens; juniors Rossi Paul, Desmond Clark, Isaac Likekele, Myles Austin, Chris Mullins (UIL State Tournament MVP) and Enock Omweno; sophomores CJ Smith, Ja'Vonte Washington, Trevian Tennyson and Trazarien White; and freshman Stacy Sneed, and

WHEREAS, leading the team was head coach Duane Gregory and her staff including assistant coaches Matthew Workman, Byron McCollum, Derek Coulson and Kevin Nguyen; managers John Sevier, Chris Williams and Dom Piegrass; athletic trainers Trevor Smith and Kristin Campos; and student trainers Joy Tama and Nikki Troung, and

WHEREAS, the Mansfield community is pleased to join in the celebration for this special season and wish continued success for the Timberview Wolves team,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David L. Cook, Mayor of the City of Mansfield, Texas, join with the members of the City Council, to hereby proclaim April 24, 2017 as in Mansfield and ask citizens to celebrate the achievements of the players and coaches and express gratitude for the community spirit and pride generated by the team over the season.

TIMBERVIEW BOYS BASKETBALL DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the City of Mansfield, State of Texas, to be affixed this 24th day of April, 2017.