

WHEREAS, blood cancers currently afflict more than one million people in the United States, with an estimated 171,550 new cases diagnosed each year, and,

WHEREAS, leukemia, lymphoma and myeloma will kill an estimated 58,320 people in the United States this year alone, and

WHEREAS, the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS), through voluntary contributions, is dedicated to finding cures for these diseases through research efforts and the support for those that suffer from them, and

WHEREAS, LLS maintains an office in North Texas to support patients with these diseases and their family members in the State of Texas,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David L. Cook, Mayor of the City of Mansfield, Texas, join with members of the City Council to hereby proclaim September 2017, as and urge all citizens to increase their understanding of blood related cancers and to encourage participation in voluntary activities to support education programs and the funding of research programs to find a cure for them.

BLOOD CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I do hereby set my hand and cause the official seal of the City of Mansfield to be affixed this 28th day of August, 2017.
